  - Environment designed for immersion and passing the certification exam
  - Learn from our best trainers across multiple certification areas
  - Create study groups to help you achieve your goals
  - Network among the instructors and participants across disciplines and industries

○ What & Cost?

- We are offering five PMI certification classroom courses:
  - Portfolio Management (PfMP – 4 days, $1,574*)
  - Program Management (PgMP – 4 days, $1,499*)
  - Project Management (PMP/CAPM – 4 days, $824*)
  - Risk Management Professional (PMI-RMP – 3 days, $1,049*)
- Conference fee:
  - Lodging and full meals: $220 per day
  - Full meal (including all snacks, breakfast, lunch, & dinner): $60 per day
  - Day rate (including all snacks, breakfast, and lunch): $45 per day

○ When & Where?

- When: 4 days – May 15 to May 18, 2017 ▪ 3 days – May 15 to May 17, 2017.
- Stroudsmoor Inn, an award winning resort in Stroudsburg, PA (heart of the Pocono Mountains).
  - The venue is conveniently located 90 minutes from New York City, and 70 minutes from Newark International Airport.

Te holds multiple masters and bachelor degrees and is currently pursuing a doctoral. He is an active volunteer with PMI at local and Global levels. On Global, he is serving as a core committee member for the next edition of Portfolio Management.

Portfolio Management (PfMP) – 3 Days

○ Certification Overview:

- Studies have consistently shown organizations today fail to implement their strategies. The failure rate differs among studies, but even the most optimistic puts the failure rate at 50% with some studies showing as high as 90%. One of the primary reasons for strategy implementation failure is poor project investment selection and poor organizational focus. This results in significant waste and ineffective use of precious assets and resources.
- Confronting the issue of investment selection and prioritization as well limited resources, organizations must work “smarter” by focusing their limited resources on the most important and highest priority endeavors. PMI created the Portfolio Management Professional (PfMP®) credential in 2014 mainly focused on addressing this major gap in organizational project management.
- Portfolio management is commonly viewed as the apex of the project management professional ladder. Portfolio managers often plan mid- to upper-level leadership roles, working with business executives to influence and determine project investments. The PfMP certification provides the necessary credential and credibility to be at the same table with senior executives.

○ Course Description:

- Our Full (3 Day) PfMP course is real-time, certified expert -led classes delivered in New York City, New Jersey, Washington D.C., and around the country. The course is comprehensive using multi-modal learning including lecture, class discussions, case studies, hands-on exercises (individual and group), and questions and answers.
- The course content is based on PMO Advisory’s consulting methodology and it is mapped to the Portfolio Management Examination Content Outline (ECO). The benefits for participants are immense. Not only will the participants learn to pass the exam (which to date our participants have achieved a 100% pass rate on the 1st attempt), they will also learn how to apply the principles, tools, and techniques.

○ Target Audience:

- The target groups of the Portfolio Management (PfMP) Certification are:
  - Senior project leaders who are helping their organization with project investment decisions
  - PMO leaders who are managing large quantities and pools of resources and wish to move into the driver seat.
  - Financial, marketing and operational executives who work closely with project managers in their organization and who are in a position to influence and contribute to the strategy implementation process.
  - Up and coming project professionals who are ready to take the next leap into mid- to upper-level management.
- We also have seen a high number of senior project professionals who are “accidental project managers” and who have grown beyond PMP. PfMP is an excellent differentiator.

Why Consider PMO Advisory? Four simple reasons:

- We are the most comprehensive project management certification firm in the world today.
- Our support warranty or the “Complete Support Promise” which includes up to 12 months of support and our “Money-Back Guarantee” is the best in the world.
- Our products and services are highly innovative, creating new and value added products and services such as PfMP certification training, our own Intelicamp, the largest test bank, & our Mega Bootcamps
- PMO Advisory is different than most firms because we are driven by our mission and business goals. Our social mission, helping professionals maximize their potential and the philosophy to “be extraordinary” leads us to offer a BIG list of free stuff. We also offer a “Special Consideration” program for selective groups of professionals and we “waive” up to 60% of our fees.

About PMO Advisory LLC

PMO Advisory is one of the most specialized firms in the world focusing on project management, IT service management, and business management. In addition to offering training for all ITIL certifications, the firm also offers project management training including Portfolio (PfMP®), program (PgMP®), project (PMP®, CAPM®, PRINCE2®, and MSP®), risk (PMI-RMP®), and agile project (PMI-ACP® and SCRUM) training. Our headquarter is next to Montclair, NJ with training sites in NYC (near Wall Street) and NJ (near Montclair and in Jersey City). The firm services consumers, businesses, government institutions, and universities.

What differentiates PMO Advisory is its depth and service delivery, including one of the best warranties in the marketplace. Its focus is on developing innovative products such as bundling online learning modules, and its mission-driven aspirations as a B-Corp. The firm’s instructors are highly experienced and certified professionals and industry experts. In most cases, they are also college professors, guest speakers or lecturers.

○ Certification Overview:

- Program Management Professional (PgMP) is the next logical step in the career progression of a project manager. As successful project managers tackle increasingly larger and more complex projects, it will be inevitable that they start to manage a collection of these projects in a program. We believe the Program Management Professional (PgMP) certification can help project professionals not only be more secure in their jobs and vocations, but also a step toward the formal recognition of their skills, experiences, capabilities, and importance to their organizations.
- The PgMP exam is significantly more challenging than the PMP exam. Here's why:
  - Program managers need to understand project management. For example, in the current standard for program management, the traditional project lifecycle is fully embedded.
  - Program managers need to have more advanced understanding of business benefits, which taps into the realm of portfolio management.
  - The exam itself is much more experienced based than PMP, and this simply memorizing inputs, outputs, tools, and techniques would not suffice.
- If you want to join this rather exclusive club of about 3,000 professionals, then PgMP is the clear choice.

○ Course Description:

- Our Full (3 Day) PgMP course is real-time, certified expert-led classes delivered in New York City, Northern New Jersey, and at client sites. The course is comprehensive using multi-modal learning including lecture, class discussions, case studies, hands-on exercises (individual and group), and questions and answers.
- The course content is based on SimpliLearn's PgMP Course module combined with our consulting war stories, tools and techniques. We also bundle our large 1,500+ test bank with this course. The benefits for participants are immense. Not only will the participants learn to pass the exam (which to date our participants have achieved a 100% pass rate on the 1st attempt), they will also learn how to apply the principles, tools, and techniques.

○ Target Audience:

- The target groups of the Program Management (PgMP) Certification are:
  - Senior project managers and directors who are leading large and complex organization initiatives
  - PMO managers who are managing large projects with the imperative of developing a more program perspective
  - Up and coming project professionals who are ready to take reign of larger projects and programs
- We also have seen a high number of senior project operational professionals who are involved in leading and operating transformative projects and programs in their organizations.

Project Management Professional (PMP & CAPM) – 4 Days

○ Certification Overview:

- Since the 1980's, organizational resources dedicated to projects have increased steadily. Today, with greater intensity due to technology changes, global competition, more stringent regulations, and greater customer expectations, projects have become the main mechanism for organizations to execute strategy and deliver value.
- Yet, even with the last few decades of rapid development of project management and an increase in the number of project management practitioners, the project success rates have largely remained constant across the last decade.
- Today, the Project Management Professional (PMP) is one of the most recognized professional certifications for project managers.
- PMP continues to be the gold standard in project management, and it serves as an important differentiator. The latest PMI Salary Survey shows that in the United States, PMPs earn a 22% premium over project managers without the PMP credential.
  - PMI's Project Management Salary Survey - Ninth Edition, focused mainly on the Project Management Professional certification. But it also implies that the other certifications, including CAPM, also command salary premiums over non-credential holders.
- Note: While this course is designed for aspiring PMPs, we also encourage CAPM aspirants to consider this course.

○ Course Description:

- Our Full (4 Day) PMP course is real-time, certified expert-led classes delivered in New York City, Northern New Jersey, and at client sites. The course is comprehensive using multi-modal learning including lectures, class discussions, case studies, hands-on exercises (individual and group), and questions and answers.
- The course content is based on SimpliLearn Course modules combined with our consulting war stories, tools and techniques. We also bundle our large test bank with this course. ## ○ Target Audience:

- The target groups for the Project Management Professional (PMP) are:
  - Project managers and directors who are leading important projects for their organizations
  - Business and functional professionals who are managing or working on projects, especially large and complex projects
  - CAPM credentials holders who now qualify for PMP and want to learn and practice project management with greater credibility
  - PMO managers who are managing large numbers of projects who wish to improve project management across their organization
  - Up and coming project professionals who want to sharpen their skills, capabilities, and credentials in managing projects

Risk Management Professional (PMI-RMP) – 2 Days

○ Certification Overview:

- Project risk is generally pervasive on large, complex, and fast moving projects. For project professionals, managing risk well is often the difference between success and failure.
- More importantly, as project environments become more complex due to technology changes, globalization, virtual teams, and the general cultural sensitivity toward issues such as privacy and confidentiality, the necessity of understanding and managing project risk is now on the forefront of executives and customers.
- PMI-RMP highlights a project professional's ability to tackle the ever more challenging risk projects and programs, and it provides greater assurance to your organization.
- Currently, there are about 3,500 PMI-RMP credential holders. Thus, either standalone or in augmentation with an existing PMI credential, PMI-RMP serves as a significant badge of distinction.

○ Course Description:

- Our Full (2 Day) PMI-RMP course is real-time, certified expert-led classes delivered in New York City, Northern New Jersey, and at client sites. The course is comprehensive using multi-modal learning including lectures, class discussions, case studies, hands-on exercises (individual and group), and questions and answers.
- The course content is based on SimpliLearn Course modules combined with our consulting war stories, tools and techniques. We also bundle our growing test bank with this course. The benefits for participants are immense. Not only will the participants learn what they need to know to pass the exam, but they will also learn how to apply the principles, tools, and techniques.

○ Target Audience:

- The target groups for the Risk Management Professional (PMI-RMP) are:
  - Project managers and directors who are leading high-risk and high-stake projects
  - Business and functional professionals who are managing or working on complex projects, especially in a turbulent project environment
  - PMPs and other PMI credentials holders who want to learn and practice risk project management with greater credibility
  - PMO managers who are managing large numbers of projects who wish to improve the management of project risk
  - Executives in high-risk, high-visibility industries who want to improve their individual and their organization's ability to mitigate negative risks (threats) and exploit positive risks (opportunities)
  - Up and coming project professionals who want to sharpen their skills, capabilities, and credentials in managing project risk
